

Job Specification – Energy Project Advisory Intern

ING is a global bank with a strong European base. Our over 56,000 employees serve around 38.8 million customers, corporate clients and financial institutions in over 40 countries. Our purpose is to empower people to stay a step ahead in life and in business. This purpose guides us in everything we do.

Our products include savings, payments, investments, loans and mortgages in most of our retail markets. For our Wholesale Banking clients, we provide specialised lending, tailored corporate finance, debt and equity market solutions, payments & cash management and trade and treasury services. Customer experience is what differentiates us and we're continuously innovating to improve it. We also partner with others to bring disruptive ideas to market faster.

'Do your thing' is our new brand direction and our first global tagline. It articulates our purpose and our promise to make banking frictionless. It's about encouraging people to do more of the things that move them and their business. 'Do your thing' is not about irresponsible behaviour but about people being free to live the life they want to live, knowing that they will make their world a little better for it.

Job Description

The ING London Internship Programme: A structured programme aimed at university students and recent graduates. The programme will offer first-hand experience of what a career at ING is like by giving you an opportunity to observe and get involved in the day to day running of the business. An internship at ING will allow you to explore your interests and develop your professional skills and capabilities.

The position is within the Global Energy Project Advisory (EPA) team and is London-based.

EPA is focused on providing project finance advisory services to international and local investors developing long-term and capital-intensive projects in the oil & gas and renewable energy sectors. The team is currently busy executing several advisory mandates with a focus on the EMEA region.

The EPA team is part of the Energy sector within ING Wholesale Banking. The Energy sector teams provide – in addition to EPA's advisory services - debt funding to investors/contractors in the oil and gas, offshore and renewable energy sectors under structured and project finance structures. The Energy Sector team is one of the key strategic sectors of ING Bank.

Job Responsibilities

- Assisting the team in preparing pitching material in bids for new advisory mandates
- Assisting the team in preparing Information Memorandum and other documentation for prospective lenders and investors
- Supporting in financial modelling tasks
- Conducting industry-related research and analysis
- Providing quantitative and qualitative analysis on deal related subjects
- Working with the rest of the interns to put together "meet the manager" sessions amongst the managers, networking events and product sessions;
- Actively participate in volunteering opportunities available through ING's charity partnership initiatives;
- Think of ideas for charity events for the London office and take them on and making them happen!

Your Work Environment

The team is London based and currently busy executing a number of advisory mandates with a focus on the EMEA region.

Career Potential

This role provides an excellent opportunity to gain an introduction to working within the department, with the potential to apply for permanent roles as available.

Who Are We Looking For?

Required Skills

Essential: A recent graduate or looking to do a university placement year

Must have the right to work in the UK for the whole duration of the proposed internship

Fluency in business English is a must

Proven interest to work in structured finance / project finance

Basic understanding of banking, finance and accounting

Good command of the Microsoft Office suite is a strong plus

Strong team player, adaptable and flexible to help team members with whatever takes priority

Excellent analytical capabilities

Eager to operate in a multi-cultural environment

Capable of working under time pressure against tight deadlines

Curious nature

Desirable Additional languages (especially European) are a strong plus

What Type Of People Are We Looking For

Creating a differentiating experience starts with ING's culture: entrepreneurial, open, collaborative, innovative and energetic. Who we are and how we work are set out in our Orange Code. Our values are the non-negotiable promises we make to the world. The principles we stick to no matter what are: we are honest, we are prudent, and we are responsible. Our behaviours are the commitments we make to each other and the standards by which we measure performance. These behaviours are what set us apart. We are looking for people who apply these behaviours: you take it on and make it happen, you help others to be successful and you are always a step ahead.

With integrity above all, the Orange Code is our manifesto describing the values and behaviours that define us and what it means to be ING.
