

Job Specification – Finance Intern

ING is a global bank with a strong European base. Our over 56,000 employees serve around 38.8 million customers, corporate clients and financial institutions in over 40 countries. Our purpose is to empower people to stay a step ahead in life and in business. This purpose guides us in everything we do.

Our products include savings, payments, investments, loans and mortgages in most of our retail markets. For our Wholesale Banking clients, we provide specialised lending, tailored corporate finance, debt and equity market solutions, payments & cash management and trade and treasury services. Customer experience is what differentiates us and we're continuously innovating to improve it. We also partner with others to bring disruptive ideas to market faster.

'Do your thing' is our new brand direction and our first global tagline. It articulates our purpose and our promise to make banking frictionless. It's about encouraging people to do more of the things that move them and their business. 'Do your thing' is not about irresponsible behaviour but about people being free to live the life they want to live, knowing that they will make their world a little better for it.

Job Title:	Finance Intern
Business/Function:	Finance
Line Manager:	Josh Anukem
Core Hours of Work:	Full Time – 9.00 am – 5.00 pm
Duration	9 month paid internship programme running from October 2021 to June 2022
Status:	Temporary
Required start date	October 2021

Job Description

The ING London Internship Programme: A structured programme aimed at university students and recent graduates. The programme will offer first-hand experience of what a career at ING is like by giving you an opportunity to observe and get involved in the day to day running of the business. An internship at ING will allow you to explore your interests and develop your professional skills and capabilities.

The applicant would be working within the UK Cost Control, Reporting and Management Information Team, with scope for interaction across the Finance function up to the Head of Finance, and Business Managers from all Functions and Products.

They would be expected to participate in and undertake a broad range of tasks, ranging from the monthly deliverables such as accrual processing, expense analytical review and investigation, periodic tasks such as the Forecast and quarterly reporting, and 'project' based work when required.

The team currently consists of 4 FTEs of varying levels of experience, all of which are keen to offer support, assistance and training where required.

Job Responsibilities

- Working with the rest of the interns to put together "meet the manager" sessions amongst the managers, networking events and product sessions;
- Actively participate in volunteering opportunities available through ING's charity partnership initiatives;
- Think of ideas for charity events for the London office and take them on and making them happen!

Career Potential

This role provides an excellent opportunity to gain an introduction to working within the department, with the potential to apply for permanent roles as available.

What Type Of People Are We Looking For

Creating a differentiating experience starts with ING's culture: entrepreneurial, open, collaborative, innovative and energetic. Who we are and how we work are set out in our Orange Code. Our values are the non-negotiable promises we make to the world. The principles we stick to no matter what are: we are honest, we are prudent, and we are responsible. Our behaviours are the commitments we make to each other and the standards by which we measure performance. These behaviours are what set us apart. We are looking for people who apply these behaviours: you take it on and make it happen, you help others to be successful and you are always a step ahead.

With integrity above all, the Orange Code is our manifesto describing the values and behaviours that define us and what it means to be ING.
